A shot was fired through the window of the depot at Nicholasville at the operator, R. H. Webb by an unknown assassin, but it failed of its mark.

At Nicholasville, Eliza Clarke, the Negro woman who shot and killed her rival, Minnie West, March 18, was sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary.

Mrs. J. B. Skinner, of Lexington, has leased the Kentucky Classical and Business College at North Middletown, lately in charge of Prof. M. G. Thomson.

Allan W. Gullion, of Carrollton, won the first prize in the annual gold medal oratorical contest between the literary societies of Centre College. The second medal went to Harry A. Shaw, of Louisville.

Bishop and Lyons, who murdered the unknown tramp, and W. T. McQuerry, who arrested them near Covington, were taken to Louisville to keep them from being lynched. McQuerry was a native of Garrard county.

The Pineville waterworks, built eight years ago, was sold under a judgment in the Bell circuit court for $4,000 to Eastern men. Their object in buying is to enlarge the present reservoir and furnish water to Pineville and all the mining towns near Pineville.

Kingsville, Lincoln county.

Census taker, Mack Walls, has been very much in evidence the last few days.

A Mr. Goshorn, of Martinsville, Ind., is here to start a large saw mill. He will have as his partner, Mr. John Young, of Highland.

Miss Lillie Smith, of McKinney, was the guest of friends here Sunday. Mrs. Ida Williams, of Eubanks, after a pleasant visit to relatives here, returned home Tuesday, accompanied by her little son, Lawrence. Dr. Joe McCarty after a pleasant visit to relatives, returned to Harrodsburg, but will return here shortly on a professional visit. Ed McCarty and Tusco Waters attended the basket meeting at O. K. Sunday and report a delightful time. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCarty's little son, Mike, came very near being choked to death by getting a trachea in his throat. Rev. Stamper, of Georgetown, filled his regular appointment at Pleasant Point Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening. A great many from here attended. J. R. Cundiff, our popular station agent, left Tuesday for an absence of two weeks, during which time he is to be married to Miss Ella B. Wright, of Stanford. Mack Williams, of Brannon, is filling the former's place.

LANCASTER.

Dr. W. N. Bush has returned from the Stanford infirmary much improved. Messrs. J. M. Duncan and George Smith, Jr., have gone to Rock Castle Springs.

Several democrats have gone to Louisville and several republicans to Philadelphia, partly for the purpose of making nominations, but principally to abuse each other.

INTERIOR JOURNALS are so much in demand here that they are called for at the news stands. I heard a young man ask for a Courier Journal and an INTERIOR JOURNAL and when he failed to get the latter he left with a frown of dissatisfaction.

Mr. E. P. Moritz, is here surveying for the erection of water works. The people are delighted to see this. Our city only needs three things to be the most inviting city in the State: Water works, the extension of the Southern railroad, and, especially, more Christianity, the latter being needed more than both the first named.

The name of Hon. R. H. Tomlinson was mentioned late as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, but no telling what will happen. Garrard has furnished several governors and has plenty of timber left. If he should announce, his career in important places of public trust, is a guarantee that he would discharge his duties faithfully if he should be nominated and elected.

Commander Maj. L. M. Drye, of the G. A. R. Encampment, has appointed a committee composed of Messrs. John Barr, A. L. Brown, M. Minton, D. R. Carr and William Herndon to "Memorialize Congress with a view to having a National Park established on the battle field of Perryville." During the encampment here in May, a communication was received from a large number of influential citizens of Perryville and vicinity asking the encampment to take action on this matter. The communication was referred to Maj. Drye, Judge Carr and Capt. Herndon, who reported a resolution favoring the movement, which was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted. In accordance with said resolution the above named committee was formed. On receipt of official notice, letters were written and communication opened with the citizens of Perryville for the organization of the committee, asking that the citizens of Perryville and vicinity organize a bureau of information and to assist in the work. The committee will go to work at once, getting up needed information and data, and it is expected that they will visit that famous battle field soon. They expect to have their memorial, accompanied by all the facts and information necessary ready to present to Congress at its session commencing in December next. Capt. Herndon put the matter on foot and it is believed that the park will be established.

Squire Myers has ditched 23 miles of turnpike with the steam plow, at $15 per mile, and it is well done. The same work by hand would have cost over $1,000.

Miss Gonzella Barnes, of Selma, Alabama, is the guest of Misses Julia May and Annie Gaines.

Lawson and Fox and Sweeney Morgan shipped several car loads of lambs to Cincinnati this week.

We have had an abundance of rain and all crops are looking exceedingly well, with prospects for an abundance of fruit.

My friend, Butler Engleman, has my thanks for a fine clay pipe, to which I only object because it bears the initials of his bosom friend, W. S. Taylor.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Russell Holdman, charging him with an attempt to commit an assault on Mrs. Wells, near Flat Woods. He was arrested but the facts in the case are not known. Trial this week.

The announcement that the Louisville Commercial Club recommended that the merchants of that city assist in paying for the right-of-way for the Southern railroad through this county, is encouraging and it should induce our people to subscribe all they can for the much needed enterprise.

Sells & Gray's great show will exhibit here Wednesday, June 27. It has everything of a first class circus and animal show, being excellent in every performance. The press in many States has made favorable mention of it. The rough riders, the pick of the U. S. Navy, will be one of the attractive features.

There is a strong feeling here to turn the Philippines over to the colored people and send them there. This would be for the good of society and stop the heavy expense of maintaining the islands, which are no more ours than are the spots on the sun and we have less use for them. The truth is they are nothing but a dead fall, inviting trouble with foreign powers, and the war was only waged for humanity's sake and not for the purpose of acquiring territory.

MT. VERNON.

Sells & Gray's circus will show here on the 28th.

Nonintercommunicability nearly exhausts the alphabet.

E. K. Wilson, who was given five years, has appealed his case.

Shirley's stove works are working on a large scale at Mublersville.

The Royal Arch Masons organized a chapter here last Thursday and put through 12 candidates. Dave Jackson, of London, was with them and directed affairs. Mr. Burnam, of Richmond, also rendered valuable assistance.

Your reporter attended the telephone meeting at Winchester last week. A majority of the strongest independent companies of the State were represented and arrangements were entered into for connecting all their exchanges by metallic circuits, thereby increasing the efficiency of the service 50 per cent. or more. Other important questions were acted upon, and altogether the independents have a bright outlook.

Nate Welsh was over from Berea and explored the mysteries of the R. A. chapter here. J. J. Lawrence is telegraphing at Glen Mary, Tenn. Fritz Krueger was out at Manchester. Judge Williams was in Richmond. Jack and James Davis, of Burnside, are visiting relatives here. Samuel Short, of Shelbyville, is with his brother, W. T., at this place. W. F. Champ was up from Paint Lick Sunday to see one of our young ladies. M. C. Miller has returned to his telegraphing at Dayton, Tenn. J. C. McKee was here from London Tuesday. Judge McClure and Miss Bessie are in Louisville. C. C. Williams attended the State convention. Rev. Ewers is attending commencement at Danville. Dr. Pennington is in Jackson county for a couple of days.

A young lady friend has our thanks for the letter sent you during the absence of your regular (?) reporter.

The telephone switchboard at Crab Orchard has been moved to an upstairs room adjoining Brooks' drug store.

J. A. Landrum and family are visiting relatives at Pittsburg, while W. H. Pettus does the work at the depot.

Miss Gertie Fuquay, a handsome young lady of Mitchell, Ind., is visiting her father, who has a lumber business here.

Mr. Richards, the bank promoter, is here and has called a meeting of subscribers of stock for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Harrison Ballard, a darkey, was brought here on trial before Commissioner White on charge of being connected with Blye in the Silver Creek post office robbery. He was acquitted.

The telephone line building from Eubanks to this place, has reached Level Green and is in working order. The enterprise is being put through by Messrs. Wilder, Riddle, Drs. Price, Isaacs and others. Poles are being distributed between Level Green and this place.

There is a deal on foot between the owner of Pine Hill coal works and some Southern and Indiana parties whose names we have failed to learn. It is said a trade has been closed and papers are being drawn this week. It is claimed that it is the intention of the late purchasers to erect coke ovens and do an extensive business. This property has changed hands often within the past dozen years and each new purchaser has promised great improvements, but having failed to materialize, we will wait and see what the latest arrival will do before giving them an extended write-up.

THE board of trustees of the Houses of Reform met at Lexington in annual session Tuesday but transacted little business, owing to the receipt of a dispatch from Gov. Beckham, asking that the election of officers be postponed until he could appoint the successors of the four trustees who had been appointed by Gov. Bradley, but whose appointments were not confirmed by the Senate. Later a dispatch came from him re-appointing Mrs. Louise E. Yandell and naming Mrs. R. P. Stoll and E. W. Beal, of Lexington, and Hon. J. Campbell Cantrill, of Georgetown, in place of Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp and Messrs. William Worthington and D. H. Howard. The appointments not being present, an adjournment was had till June 20, when the business of the annual meeting will be transacted. The writer is unacquainted with Mrs. Stoll and Mr. Beal, but knows Mr. Cantrill, and if the other appointments are as good as his, the interests of the important institution will be in good hands. We regret, however, the severance of ties which had become very pleasant to us and we thought profitable to the State, as all had posted themselves on the work and had become thoroughly interested in it. To Mrs. Beauchamp, especially great credit is due for intelligent, painstaking work and to Mr. Worthington, who as treasurer of the board, has performed the onerous job without pay, doing for nothing what it would cost an individual fully $50 a month to have performed. To Mr. Howard is also due much praise. He was treasurer for a term or two and did his work well. We part with them all with regret.

VOCIFERATES the idiotic Louisville Commercial: "When the roll is called in the democratic convention tomorrow the names of such honored leaders as Buckner, Brown, Hardin, Knott, Owens, Adams, Duke, O'Neill and hundreds of equal character and ability, will be missing, and their places will be taken by the Poyntzes, the Yontzes, the Chins, the Suters and similar specimens of rag-tag and bob-tail tribe." We do not believe that all of these men are craven hearted traitors, but if they, or any of them are, the republicans are welcome to them. Their room is better than their company. Those who have taken their places are better citizens and truer men. While the idiotic Commercial is talking about roll calling, why doesn't it note the possible and decidedly probable absence of the leaders of its party from its convention? When Taylor is called no response will be heard. "Is Charley Finley here?" Nay, erly, "Where is Caleb Powers, Yontze, Culton, Tallow Dick Combs, (not Knott?) Absent on account of circumstances over which they have no control. If the sweet scented set named by the idiotic Commercial are proud of taking the places of assassination suspects, they can do so without let or hindrance, and joy go with them.

GOV. BUCKNER has gone abroad, we hope never to come back, since his last words were a prediction, founded on a hope, that "Bryan's vote this year will be largely decreased, as he will have to carry the load of Goebelism, as by his visits to Kentucky last year he has inspired that infamous measure and the democrats of other States will not tolerate such infamous laws as are advocated by Kentucky Goebelism." How man who has been so signally honored by the democracy can so basely go back on it is beyond our comprehension, except on the hypothesis that the man who does it is a scoundrel at heart and honor is an unknown quantity in his make-up.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TAYLOR, who is at Frankfort arguing the Kentucky and Indiana boundary line, said to a reporter that Mount's action in refusing grants a requisition for Finley and Taylor and the other assassins expects a safe haven, was universally proved by Indiana republicans, who regard the fugitives as political exiles and not criminals. This would do very well if all the facts and the evidence were against them, facts of which Indiana republicans of any intelligence can not be ignorant. Their sympathy, therefore, with such cattle shows what class they are and damns the out in the eyes of honest people.

OF all the mean, uncompromising, ignorant creatures who infect the political life, the former democrat, who deserted into the enemy's camp, is meanest. We have had the misfortune to talk with two turncoats this week, men too of more than average intelligence and standing, and the arch conspirator, Taylor, could not have expected all of the damnable deeds of his cohorts as they did. It was enough to make a man blush for his kind and that men can become so hardened infamy.

His item from the Louisville Post asks volumes for the independence of the gallant old fellows, nearing the end of an honorable honored existence: Of the 1,600 D. V.'s who marched up from Mississippi to the reunion, only 15 asked for would accept free quarters.

Stues and Arthur Goebel have got Col. T. C. Campbell to write "The Will of William Goebel."

WE are in receipt of a number of letters and have had many oral requests to come out for Gov. McCreary for governor and use our best endeavors to have him nominated. In the 25 years Gov. McCreary has been before the public, this paper never failed to support him in his candidacy for nomination and after he had secured it. We believe now that the governor is the very strongest man the democrats could nominate and that he could win hands down. But he is not a candidate and would only accept the nomination tendered him unanimously. In such an event, he would answer the party's call and carry its banner to victory. Complications not likely to arise, however, may force him to make the race, which he should be forced to do any way. We are for him first and last, but we will very cheerfully support any of the other aspirants for the office, when it is shown by a nomination that he is the best and strongest man. We have got to get together to win and that is what we shall strive to assist in.

THE court of appeals discharged the supercedas bond of the republican holders of the minor State offices and gave the democrats possession at once, of the State building and offices. The decision was made on a motion of Attorney General Breckinridge to docket and advance the cases, for the reason that the business of the State is utterly at a standstill. The interest on the bonded debt is due, yet cannot be paid, though there is ample money for that and for all other purposes of the State. The decision will be received with great delight by everybody to whom the State is indebted. The asylums and other State institutions are running at great disadvantage, owing to the uncertainty of matters, and the inability to get funds. The treasury doors will now be opened and long delayed salaries and other dues will be paid. It is a righteous decision and should have been made long ago.

THOUGH urged to grant Gov. Beckham's requisition for Taylor, presented by Sheriff Suter, in strong speeches by Col. Campbell and Justus Goebel, the creature who disgraces the office of governor of Indiana, refused to do so and issued a lame statement defending his position, which might be expressed in the words "I am a republican and do not wish to see any of my brother assassins get his dues."

THE Louisville Dispatch's article on Gov. McCreary is in keeping with the low down instincts of that meanest of the assassination organs. No man connected with the subsidized sheet, much less the writer of the dirty flings, is worthy even to black Gov. McCreary's boots or to perform any other menial service for him.

THERE are about 11,000 seats in the Philadelphia convention hall, which will be thrown open on the 19th to nominate McKinley and adopt a platform made out by the trusts, combines and other robbers of the people.

HARMONIOUS CONVENTION.
McCREARY AND SEVEN OTHERS ELECT.
ED DELEGATES-AT-LARGE.

HARVEY HELM EASILY WINS OUT.

LOUISVILLE, June 15. 8 A. M.—The convention adjourned at midnight, having elected eight State-at-large delegates as follows: C. W. Bransford, Owensboro; Lewis McQuown, Bowling Green; J. S. C. Blackburn, Woodford; N. W. Uley, Lyons; James P. Gregory, Louisville; James B. McCreary, Madison; C. B. Poyntz, Maysville, and W. S. Pryor, New Castle. There are no alternates.
Morton K. Yontz and Napoleon B. Hays, Pineville, were named as State electors and W. P. Thorne, Eminence, and Wallace McKay, Louisville, as assistants. The members of the State central and executive committees from the State-at-large are Ailie W. Young and Samuel E. Jones.
The platform roasts every thing republican and commends every thing democratic. In presenting the report senator Blackburn said all members of the committees favor a modification of the Goebel law and passed it up to the Lexington convention, July 19, with that recommendation.
Blackburn wants a minority representation for the republicans on the State election board and on the county election boards, that is one out of the three commissioners to be a republican and equal representation of the parties at the polling places.
The removal from the ballot of all emblems or devices is recommended, thus imposing an educational qualification.
R. E. HUGHES.

LOUISVILLE, June 14.—Harmony is the watchword at the Louisville convention and if good for the party is not accomplished by the grand meeting of democratic signs go for naught. At the meeting held in Music Hall this morning Hon. Harvey Helm was one of the successful candidates for district delegate to the Kansas City convention and his friends in Lincoln and adjoining counties are proud of the honor so worthily bestowed. Hon. R. H. Tomlinson, of Garrard, was elected chairman of the 8th district delegation and Mr. Scott, of Shelby, secretary. There were three candidates for district delegate, Mr. Helm, C. M. Lewis, of Shelby, and B. L. Cook, of Jessamine. Only one ballot was taken when Messrs. Helm and Lewis won, the former receiving 114 votes more than any other candidate. R. L. Davidson, of Lancaster, and Lou Brown, of Taylorsville, were elected alternates. W. J. Price, of Danville, was unanimously elected elector, with R. H. Tomlinson, of Garrard, assistant. Mr. C. C. Williams, of Rockcastle, was chosen for the latter honor, but declined on account of business.

On permanent organization, John B. Chensault, of Madison, was chosen; resolutions, D. L. Moore, of Mercer; credentials, J. W. Rawlings, of Boyle; Wilkes Morgan, of Anderson, succeeded Simon R. Cook, of Shelby, as executive committee man. Hon. R. C. Warren, of Lincoln, argued that this was no time to attend to such business, but he was voted down 46 to 32 and Mr. Morgan won without opposition. The 8th selected Col. W. G. Welch, of Lincoln, vice president of the convention. The convention proper was called to order by Chairman A. W. Young, when Hon. Ollie James, of Crittenden, and C. C. Roe, of Louisville, were made chairman and secretary without a dissenting voice. Judge Frank Daugherty, of Nelson, was agreed upon for permanent chairman. The band played stirring music and speeches by Hon. W. P. Thorne, Gov. Beckham, Hon. James D. Black, W. B. Smith, J. H. Lewis, C. K. Wheeler, J. B. McCreary and others were enjoyed while the various committees were out. At 5 P. M. the committees not having completed their work the convention adjourned till 7:30 P. M.

After Gov. McCreary's speech Mr. C. W. Metcalf, of Pineville, came forward and to a pertinent speech acknowledged his wrong of bolting and asked that he again be received in democratic fellowship. His talk was a taking one and he was loudly cheered.

J. C. Jones and N. B. Hays represented Bell county. They are both warm black men and are banking on the man from Knox carrying every thing before him. E. C. W.

DEMOCRATS IN POSSESSION.

FRANKFORT, June 14.—The offices in the public buildings were turned over to the regular State officials this morning, and Custodian Thompson has a large force at work placing them in condition for the removal of the temporary offices in the Capital Hotel, building.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

The democrats of Wisconsin endorsed the Chicago platform.
The president has appointed W. D. Bynum, of Indiana, a member of the commission to codify the criminal laws of the United States.
The republican convention at Philadelphia will be rapped to order with a gavel made of dogwood cut from the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, near Hodgenville.

A Philadelphia paper makes public a letter from Rear Admiral Schley, written May 15, declining to allow the use of his name for any office, a very sensible determination.
Gov. Stephens, of Missouri, tells the New York World that the republican mayor, the trimmer newspapers and three girls between the ages of 13 and 16 are responsible for the disorderly state of affairs in St. Louis.
The republican State committee will meet at Louisville tomorrow to name the time and place to nominate a candidate for governor. Louisville and July 17 will likely be selected.

Roosevelt continues to refuse to accept the vice presidential nomination and New York is essential to McKinley's success. So he is between the devil and the deep blue sea, as no other republicans but Teddy can carry it.
If the report that the L. & N. railroad will take no part—at least, no financial part—in the Kentucky gubernatorial fight this year, is correct, it means that there will be no gubernatorial fight in Kentucky this year—Louisville Times.
The republican National committee is in session at Philadelphia to hear the contests in which Alabama, Delaware, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Virginia, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas and the District of Columbia furnish work.

Gov. Beckham has appointed John Skain, president of the board of councilmen; A. M. Harrison, delinquent tax assessor and Roger Kearney, all of Fayette, to succeed Judge Mat Walton, Gen. Wilbur R. Smith and George Heasley as commissioners of the Lexington Lunatic Asylum.
W. C. P. Breckinridge writes a long editorial for the Lexington Herald, in which he discusses "The Only Issue in Kentucky," and summed up in a few words the only issue with Mr. Breckinridge is, how to prevent the punishment of the murderers of Gov. Goebel.—Owensboro Messenger.

The convention to nominate a candidate for governor will be held Thursday, July 19, at Lexington. Conventions will be held in each voting precinct on Saturday, July 14, at 2 P. M., to select delegates to county conventions on Monday, July 16, when delegates will be selected to the State convention.

The Knox county democrats, where several of the assassins made their homes, denounced the republican party of Kentucky, as at present led, as being the very essence of hypocrisy, the champion of assassination and the refuge of fugitives, bending all their energies to thwart the ends of justice in the prosecution of the assassins of Gov. Goebel.

The Ohio democrats affirmed adherence to the Chicago platform and undiminished faith in Bryan, demand that the government shall issue and regulate volume of paper money, and denounce acquisition of territory independent of the constitution, the Porto Rican tariff bill, trusts and monopolies, the currency law passed by the present Congress and imperialism.

In an article called forth by the call for a meeting of the National committee of gold democrats, Mr. Watterson gives this good advice: The gold democrats should meet, declare the organization ended and, if they cannot make up their minds to endorse the action of the Kansas City convention, they should leave individual democrats free to do as they please, a thing they are pretty certain to do without any special let or hindrance.

The honorary degree of the Maca-bees was conferred on Admiral Dewey at Grand Rapids, Mich. When he was told that there were 147,000 members of the order in Michigan, he asked, humorously, "Are they all democrats?" He demurred slightly at first to the conferring of the degree, asking if there was any politics in it. On being assured that the Maca-bees were non-partisan, he accepted the degree and the badge.

We prepare to make this one of the busiest weeks we have ever had since the inauguration of our Great Cut Price Sales.
